Next Board Meeting

The next Board meeting will be held February 18th, 5:30pm to 6:30pm, at The Joinery.

Donations

- GOOW has $25K in the bank and we need to be doing something beneficial with the money
- The Board discussed the general topic of donations to schools. Some stated that rather than donate money that they prefer to donate things such as: wood, sandpaper, saw blades, and recurring expenses.
- OCAC matches money for donations.
- Wood cut-offs are a good donation.
- Norm suggested schools write up a grant proposal. And there must be accounting after the project is finished.

Education Committee

- Don DeDobbeleer has offered to do a Freehand Router class for making dovetails in March or April. Bob O'Connor has commented he does not believe they can fill a class by April.
- Gig will check status with Richard regarding building two library storage boxes. Possible SketchUp class in March or April.

Meetings

- Brian says he needs an instructor for a future Power Tool Safety general meeting.
- Brian suggested holding a swap meet on some of our meeting nights, but only when held at Franklin High School. Bob stressed it is important that if held before the General Meeting that it must finish by 6:55pm.

Shows

There are 13 booths available for the spring Multi-Guild Show in April. Bill has 11-13 verbal commitments for booth spaces. The NFWF group may have additional spaces available for GOOW. Bill is working with Gary Bankston.
